SUBJECT:

CONSIDER AN UPDATE ON CITY COMMISSIONS (CITY COUNCIL)

I. SUMMARY

This report provides an informational update to the City Council regarding the recent activities of City Commissions. Most of the City Commission meetings except for the Planning Commission were canceled at the start of the COVID-19 pandemic in March 2020. Since that time, some of the Commissions were authorized by the City Council to resume meeting so they could address specific needs pertaining to the Commission's focus area. These included the Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts Commission, the Economic Development Commission, and the Women's Issues Commission, all of which have been meeting regularly.

In summer 2021, the City Council directed that all remaining Commissions shall be reactivated on a rolling as-needed basis starting in September 2021 with meetings conducted digitally or in-person based on the preference of the Commissioners. Since then, the Public Works Commission and the Environmental Commission have resumed.

At the Disaster Council meeting on January 10, 2022, Mayor Davis-Holmes called for all Commissions that had not yet resumed meetings to suspend meeting until further notice. This item includes updates on only those Commissions that have been meeting.

The City Attorney's Office plans to provide short presentations about different Brown Act topics at each meeting moving forward. The Commissioners have developed a list of 17 priority issues they want to focus on during the 2022 calendar year. Each Commissioner has been tasked with ranking the issues 1 - 17, 1 being the highest priority and 17 being the lowest priority, to determine if there is consensus amongst the Commissioners and to narrow down the list to a more manageable size. The results of this exercise will be shared with the Commission at their next regularly scheduled meeting on March 2, 2022.
